

PRIMARY SCHOOL EDUCATION COORDINATOR
0.8 or 1.0 FTE
IMMEDIATE START

Helena River Steiner School is a small, city-based co-educational and non-denominational school in Midland, Western Australia. We offer a Steiner education from Kindergarten to High School, based on the nationally accredited Australian Steiner Curriculum Framework \(ASCF\), which is grounded in the educational insights of Rudolf Steiner. We aim to create a school where the Core Principles for Australian Steiner Schools permeate its pedagogical, physical and social fabric through the thinking, feeling and willing actions of its employees and community members.

We seek an experienced Steiner educator/leader to lead and support our education staff in implementation of the Australian Steiner Curriculum and in evaluating teaching programs. The role manages timetables, duty rosters, relief cover, and assumes responsibility for school management in the absence of the Principal. The successful candidate will also provide a 'hands-on' approach to inducting, mentoring and supporting education staff, with a key responsibility for overseeing a newly developed whole-school approach to learning, assessment and reporting in early childhood, primary and high school (Classes 7 to 9). This approach aims to improve student learning outcomes and school accountability for learning. As a member of the School's Leadership Team, the Primary School Education Coordinator works collaboratively with the Principal and High School Education Coordinator to implement the vision and strategic needs of the school, delivering a quality Steiner education within a non-Government regulatory framework. For a full job description, please enquire via the contact details below.

Applications are encouraged from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. The successful candidates require a current Working with Children Check.

Applications will be considered as received.
